Winter event highlights & festivals in Door County

CHRISTMAS BY THE BAY

Held annually the weekend before Thanksgiving in Sturgeon Bay (November 18-20, 2022). The weekend kicks off with a community car parade as Sturgeon Bay stores "unwrap" their storefronts followed by the annual tree lighting. A parade Saturday morning ends with the arrival of Santa. The weekend ends with a brunch with Santa at Stone Harbor Resort.

HOLLY DAYS

Held annually the weekend after Thanksgiving in Egg Harbor (November 25- 26, 2022) The event kicks off with breakfast with Santa followed by children's activities throughout Egg Harbor businesses. Santa arrives via fire truck to light the community tree. Throughout the weekend are horse drawn carriage rides.

DOOR COUNTY CHRISTKINDLMARKT

Held annually during the holiday season for three weekends at Sister Bay's Corner of the Past Museum (November 25-27, December 2-4, and December 9-11, 2022). Started in 2021 the market features local artisans, live music, and traditional Nordic foods in an old world setting of beautifully decorated historical buildings.

NEW YEAR'S EVE FIREWORKS & FM 106.9 CHERRY DROP

Held annually on New Year's Eve in Sister Bay (December 31, 2022). Start the evening with a family friendly event with ice skating, a bonfire and huge fireworks display at the Sister Bay ice rink. Move to downtown Sister Bay for the countdown to midnight and the giant sparkling cherry drop.

JACKSONPORT POLAR BEAR SWIM

Held annually on New Year's Day at Lakeside Park in Jacksonport (January 1, 2023). Started in 1986, this event has turned into one of the larger New Year's Day polar bear swims in the country. Each year thousands of spectators watch as hundreds of swimmers kick-off the new year by taking a refreshing dip into the icy waters of Lake Michigan.

NEW YEAR'S DAY PARADE

Held annually on New Year's Day in downtown Egg Harbor (January 1, 2023). Quirky and fun New Year's Day parade starts at 1 PM and runs through downtown Egg Harbor. No formal registration, join the parade!

FISH CREEK WINTER FESTIVAL

Held annually the first weekend in February based at Clark Park in Fish Creek (February 3-5, 2023). Family friendly games, live music, food, and a spectacular fireworks display. Sunday features the "Fruit Loop Fun Run." The half-mile run encourages fun costumes and rewards each participant with a bowl of Fruit Loops at the finish line.

FIRE AND ICE FESTIVAL

Held annually the third Saturday in February throughout Sturgeon Bay (February 18, 2023). Citywide ice and snow carving competition featuring novice to professional sculptors. In the evening attend the formal gala that includes dinner, dancing, and a live auction. The finale of the evening is a firework display on the bay.
